Helping Others

One of our FBC family challenged me to ask those who do not need the stimulus check the government is sending to consider giving part or all to support those who are struggling. I ran the idea past the Elders and Advisors and they are in support of this opportunity. Many in our community are blessed to be steadily employed or are retired and are not experiencing financial difficulties at this time. This is not a plea or a push to raise funds, but simply an option, among many, for helping others. We will carefully vet any we help with out first focus on FBC family and their loved ones. Next in priority are our Global Partners. Those in third world countries who are forced to shelter at home do not have

Marriage May-Day!

Set up a movie for the kids, grab two drinks, and join us for a live fireside chat to talk about navigating your marriage through these surreal times we're living in. We are normal people with normal marriages, just like you, and we want to share access to resources like we do. If the "shelter in place" type restrictions continue long in those locals, they are as subject to starvation as they are to COVID19. We have already sent funds to some of our Global Partners who are severely impacted by this crisis. If you chose to contribute just label your offering "Benevolence."

Global Partners Corner

Last week, FBC sent a $500 special gift to the Pregnancy Care Clinic (PCC) to help mitigate a budget shortfall precipitated due to the COVID-19 shutdown resulting in cancellation and postponement of fundraising events this Spring.

"Thank you, as always, for being such faithful and generous partners with this ministry!"
-Sara Wroblewski (Executive Director PCC)

Let us continue to look at how our FBC Global Partners are coping with the COVID-19 crisis in their part of the world:

HOW TO BEGIN A RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

- Admit you have not met God's standard of perfection
-Romans 3:23
- Believe Jesus Christ is God as he claimed to be
-Romans 10:9-10
- Ask God to forgive your sin on the basis of Jesus Christ's death payment
-Romans 4:25
- Accept God's love for you and His offer of eternal life
-John 3:16

We invite you to contact a Pastor or Elder to help you begin a relationship with Jesus Christ.
